

We have enough trouble in this section of the country with man-made interferences (power connections, industry, high voltage transmission lines, etc.) that make AM radio reception next to impossible in some communities. We DON'T need any more garbage on the power lines! "The end justifies the means" is not a viable reason to do this!